

Woman Evolve

Book Club Discussion Questions

Who is your favorite woman in the Bible and why?

What were your opinions of Eve before reading this book? Did you look down on her, feel ashamed of her, pitied her, or identified with her? What are your thoughts on Eve now?

What do you think of SJR's statement, "You have a little Eve in you."

How are you producing good fruit in your life now? Where are you still tempted by forbidden fruit?

Has there ever been a time when you knew you were at war with the enemy (Satan)? How are you swinging back at the enemy now?

Do you believe God is setting you up for victory and working on your behalf?

What inspired you most from the book? What are the next steps God is calling you toward?

Book Club Tips

Announce the book (Woman Evolve) for the first meeting, then take everyone's suggestions for later book clubs when you meet in person. Friends can bring a book to recommend, put book titles in a hat and draw at random, or set up a voting system!

Decide as a group how many times you can meet a year and how many books you want to read. One every month? 6 times a year? 4 times a year? What's realistic for everyone's schedules?

Pick a place to meet! Is this a virtual book club or in person? Do you want to rotate houses or meet at a different venue every time? We recommend keeping it casual, so that you don't intimidate people on the first time!

Food makes everything more fun! Make it easy on yourself and host a potluck and have everyone bring a dish, or put out simple snacks. Your Woman Evolve potluck could be "anything from the Garden" inspired, or serve an easy salad and a store-bought apple pie!

Free yourself from distractions. At the book club, you may want to have a no-cell phone rule to help everyone have better interactions and discussion.

And finally, for Christian book clubs in particular, you may want to set some ground rules:

1) Make it a safe place to share. Many people share in a group things they wouldn't say publicly. Protect each other by not allowing anything shared in the group to leave the group.

2) No counseling. Protect the group by not directing all attention on solving one person's problem. This is the place to discover and apply God's truth together as a group.

3) Rely on Scripture for truth. We are prone to use conventional, worldly wisdom as truth. Try to respond with God's truth and Word, not "advice."
