Your weekly study emails will go out on Fridays, but all the videos are available now through January 9, 2022 so you can watch them at your own pace. We know the month of December can be busy, so we're making the videos accessible during the entire study if you need to follow a different schedule than the one outlined above. You can even binge watch them with friends and family the night before Christmas! We pray you are blessed by Max's teaching and your journey to Bethlehem this Christmas.
